Summary of reasons for revocation — INTERNATIONAL HUMAN RELIEF ORGANIZATION

The audit by the Canada Revenue Agency (CRA) has revealed that the Organization is not complying with several of the requirements set out in the Income Tax Act. The Organization failed to devote all of its resources to its own charitable activities; conveyed an undue benefit upon a director; failed to provide adequate documentation to demonstrate on-going and active direction and control over funds purportedly sent to volunteers to carry out its activities outside of Canada; failed to issue official donation receipts in accordance with the Act; and failed to file an accurate information return. For all of these reasons, and for each reason alone, it is the position of the CRA that the Organization no longer meets the requirements necessary for charitable registration and should be revoked in the manner described in subsection 168(1) of the Act.
