Summary of reasons for revocation — Crossroads Christian Fellowship

The Canada Revenue Agency's (CRA) review has revealed that the Organization is not complying with the requirements set out in the Income Tax Act. In particular, it was found that the Organization was not engaged in carrying on charitable activities as required under the Act. This relates to the findings of the Ontario Supreme Court that the Organization wound up in 2006 and that the assets of the Organization were used for the personal benefit of a trustee. For all of these reasons, and for each reason alone, it is the position of the CRA that the Organization no longer meets the requirements necessary for charitable registration and should be revoked in the manner described in subsection 168(1) of the Act.
