Summary of reasons for revocation — SOCIÉTÉ REINE DE LA PAIX

[Translation] The audit of the Organization by the Canada Revenue Agency (CRA) identified specific elements of non-compliance with the provisions of the Income Tax Act. More specifically, it revealed that the organization: (1) did not carry out charitable activities, (2) undertook business activities that cannot be considered related business, (3) allocated undue private benefits to its three directors and to two volunteers, (4) issued donation receipts that do not comply with the provisions of the Act, and (5) did not maintain appropriate books and records. For all these reasons, collectively and individually, the CRA is of the opinion that the Organization no longer meets the necessary requirements as a charity and its status should be revoked under the regulatory terms of subsection 168(1) of the Act.
