

Processing fees vary depending on the payment method originally used to add the money you're giving. The most common way of adding money to an Impact Account is by credit card, and the fee set by Charitable Impact's credit card processor is 2.8%—lower than most other charity websites.

Learn more about fees

Charitable investment and non-cash assets

With Charitable Impact, you can choose to Donate & Invest, Donate & Give, or a combination of both. In each case, you can take advantage of immediate tax benefits while enjoying more time and space to plan your impact.

Donate & Invest

Donate and invest a wide range of assets, potentially growing the value over time while you decide which charities to support.

Donate & Give

Donate non-cash assets and liquidate them now to fund your Impact Account, from which you can give to the charities of your choice whenever you like.

Securities, cash, and more

We accept a wide range of assets for donation:

- Cash
- Publicly traded securities
- Private company preferred shares
- Real estate
- Life insurance

Fees: publicly traded securities and private company shares

Charitable Impact offers the lowest cost of any advisory-managed donor-advised fund in Canada. Fees do not impact the tax receipt, which is determined by the fair market value of the assets at the time of donation.

Donate & Invest: account balance	Fee
First $1,000,000	0.50%
Above first $1,000,000	0.25%

Important notes about these fees

- For Donate & Invest, the service fee is calculated annually on the Charitable Investment Account balance and does not include investment management fees charged by your financial advisor
- Minimum fees apply, please contact us to learn more
- Our fees are not inclusive of the transactional and/or asset under management fees charged by the advisor or investment manager that we work with
- For information about fees for other asset types, please contact us