 Income Tax Act reference: ITA 168.(1) - 168.(2)
 Additional information: The Canada Revenue Agency's (CRA) audit has revealed that the Organization is not complying with the requirements set out in the Income Tax Act. In particular, it was found that the Organization did not devote all its resources to charitable purposes and activities; failed to meet its disbursement quota; failed to maintain proper books and records; and failed to file the T3010, Registered Charly Information Return, as required by the Act. For all of these reasons, and for each reason alone, It is the position of the CRA that the Organization no longer meets the requirements necessary for charitable registration and should be revoked in the manner described in subsection 168(1) of the Act.

Additional Information: The audit by the CRA found that the Foundation is not complying with the requirements set out in the Act. In particular, it was found that the Foundation provided donation receipts for property to non-arm's length parties in which the tax-receipted amounts that were used did not accurately represent the FMV of the property. For this reason, it is the position of the CRA that the Foundation no longer meets the requirements for charitable registration and should be revoked in the manner described in subsection 168(1) of the Act.

APPLICATION TO REGISTER A CHARITY UNDER THE INCOME TAX ACT

With the exception of the information to be provided in Part 6 of this application, the Canada Customs and Revenue Agency is permitted to make all of this form (including any attachments) available to the public if the application is approved and the organization becomes registered. The Canada Customs and Revenue Agency is also allowed to provide copies of the registration letter, including any conditions and warnings contained therein. If registration is denied, however, all of the information you provide remains confidential.

Please read the instructions in the companion publication Registering a Charity for Income Tax Purposes. You will need the information in the guide to complete this form properly. To help you, the numbers for the questions on the form correspond with the numbers in Section II of the guide. Terms printed in bold on the form are defined in the Glossary on page 4 of Registering a Charity for Income Tax Purposes or are explained in the information that is provided in the guide for each question.

It is important to complete this form carefully. The Charities Directorate needs accurate information to evaluate an application properly. When a question is not relevant to the organization's situation, check box N/A (not applicable), or indicate N/A in the space provided. If the required information and documents are not included, we may return the application without reviewing it.

It is a serious offence under the Income Tax Act to provide information which is known to be false or deceptive.

Additional information: The Organization was previously audited and agreed to implement corrective measures to address the areas of non-compliance identified in its first audit. Specifically, in 2010, the Organization agreed to implement corrective measures related to its disbursement quota shortfall and to become compliant with filing requirements related to its Form T3010, Registered Charity Information Return. However, the follow-up audit found that the corrective measures were not implemented and the Organization has continued to be non-compliant in these areas. In addition, the follow-up audit showed that the Organization has also failed to comply with numerous other fundamental requirements set out in the Act.

Additional information: The audit by the CRA has revealed that the Organization is not complying with the requirements set out in the Act. In particular, it was found that the Organization failed to devote its resources to charitable purposes. For this reason, it is the position of the CRA that the Organization no longer meets the requirements necessary for charitable registration and should be revoked in the manner described in subsection 168(1) of the Act.

Additional information:

The audit by the CRA found that the Organization is not complying with the requirements set out in the Act. In particular, it was found that the Organization failed to appropriately spend gifts received from non-arm's length charities, failed to meet its disbursement quota, failed to devote resources to charitable activities, and failed to maintain adequate books and records. For these reasons, it is our position that the Organization no longer meets the requirements for charitable registration.
