

This is Exhibit "II" referred to in the affidavit of Vivian Krause sworn before me at Vancouver, B.C. this 16th day of November, 2023.

A handwritten signature in black ink, consisting of a large loop followed by a horizontal line and a short vertical stroke at the end.

A Commissioner for taking Affidavits within British Columbia

From: Cox, Wendy WCox@globeandmail.com

Subject: RE: Op-ed submission: CRA Delay Kept Quest University In The Dark for 21 Years

Date: April 26, 2023 at 10:28:55 AM

To: VIVIAN KRAUSE vivian.krause@me.com

Nope. That clears up that argument. Thanks for it. I'll have another look at the op-ed but I am underwater today so won't get to it today.

Thanks

From: VIVIAN KRAUSE <vivian.krause@me.com>

Sent: Wednesday, April 26, 2023 9:54 AM

To: Cox, Wendy <WCox@globeandmail.com>

Subject: Re: Op-ed submission: CRA Delay Kept Quest University In The Dark for 21 Years

**This email originated outside of The Globe and Mail****

Wendy,

Thank you for taking time to reply.

Thanks also for forwarding my piece to Dennis.

I am sued by one of Bromley's clients, Scott Cousens, in relation to his claims about the funding of what was Fortius Sport & Health Centre.

I am not being sued over anything directly related to Quest. Do you still see the legal action against me as putting me in a conflict of interests?

Thanks again.

Sincerely,

Vivian

Vivian Krause
(604) 618-8110

On Apr 26, 2023, at 8:27 AM, Cox, Wendy <WCox@globeandmail.com> wrote:

Hi Vivian. Yes I received it and read through.

We won't be accepting the op Ed because of the lawsuit surrounding it. It would be a conflict for you to write an op-Ed about something that you are being sued over. Yes, a news story would be the way to go rather than an op Ed.

I have however sent the issue and your email (with the op Ed) to the business editor. Dennis was Kathy's editor on the main piece and has since moved into a senior role at Report on Business. I have not heard back from him.

I know it must be frustrating to you and there is obviously a story here regarding the CRA's handling of the matter. The closure of the university is also something I'm hoping we can get to.

As I mentioned however. I have a very small team in BC and I simply don't have anyone that can sort through this. I wish I did. But it took Kathy weeks and unfortunately, I've got a few other things that I need to devote that kind of time to.

I appreciate you keeping me in the loop. I'm hoping to get the top of waves issue of the university done.

Best.

Sent from my iPhone
Expect typos

On Apr 26, 2023, at 6:32 AM, Vivian Krause <vivian.krause@me.com> wrote:

**This email originated outside of The Globe and Mail****

Dear Wendy,

Would you mind please letting me know that you have received my submission and whether The Globe & Mail would consider its publication?

I would be glad to make any edits that you deem necessary.

I'm at (604) 618-8110.

Sincerely,
Vivian

Vivian Krause
(604) 618-8110

On Apr 23, 2023, at 4:53 PM, Vivian Krause <vivian.krause@me.com> wrote:

Dear Wendy,

I've sent you so many e-mails about this over the years....

Seems to me there really should be some Globe & Mail reporting on this story, especially since Kathy Tomlinson put almost a year into it and The Globe reported it front-page, two days in a row. Also, as I mention below, the CRA audit on the key charity involved in funding Quest was sent out by CRA on THE VERY NEXT DAY after the Globe's story was published online. Considering that the audit covered a transactions that went back 18 years at that point, I find it hard to believe that the CRA's timing is a coincidence. More likely, I believe it was triggered by the Globe's reporting.

This coming Saturday, April 30, will be the last commencement ceremony for Quest University in Squamish.

Below is an op-ed submission for your consideration.

Would it be possible for you to let me know soon if The Globe would publish my submission?

In advance, thank you very much.

Sincerely,
Vivian

Vivian Krause,