

With the extension of the information to be provided in Part 6 of this application, the Canada Customs and Revenue Agency is permitted to make all of this form (including any attachments) available to the public if the application is approved and the organization becomes registered. The Canada Customs and Revenue Agency is also allowed to provide copies of the registration letter, including any conditions and warnings contained therein. If registration is denied, however, all of the information you provide remains confidential.

Please read the instructions in the companion publication Registering a Charity for Income Tax Purposes. You will need the information in the guide to complete this form properly. To help you, the numbers for the questions on the form correspond with the numbers in Section II of the guide. Terms printed in bold on the form are defined in the Glossary on page 4 of Registering a Charity for Income Tax Purposes or are explained in the information that is provided in the guide for each question.

It is important to complete this form carefully. The Charities Directorate needs accurate information to evaluate an application properly. When a question is not relevant to the organization's situation, check box N/A (not applicable), or indicate N/A in the space provided. If the required information and documents are not included, we may return the application without reviewing it.

It is a serious offence under the Income Tax Act to provide information which is known to be false or deceptive.

Part 4 – Information about the activities of the applicant

Q13A Activities

Describe below the organization's programs and activities in detail (i.e., the ones by which it claims to benefit the community-fundraising activities should be recorded in Q15 and Q16). In describing the activities, show how the organization intends to achieve each of the objectives stated in its governing document. Indicate as well where the organization will be carrying on each of its activities and who the intended beneficiaries are. If the organization maintains a web site, please provide the address.

The Foundation intends to operate as a public charitable foundation. It is not known how much funding it will receive; but it will distribute funds to registered charities and "qualified donees" in compliance with its disbursement quota. It has not determined which charities will benefit but they will be "qualified donees" under the Income Tax Act so that the Foundation can operate within the guidelines and disbursement requirements set out for public foundations. The Foundation does not intend to carry out charitable activities itself.
