Dear Ryan,

I wanted to pass along this email from our friends at Progress Alberta, since Leadnow won't be active in the upcoming Alberta election.

They're running a people powered campaign to stop Jason Kenney from becoming Alberta's next Premier and I thought it might be something Leadnow members like you would be interested in. With the election just two weeks away, will you sign up to join Progress Alberta's campaign to stop Kenney?

Onwards,
Logan

Dear friend,
The time has come. The writ has been drawn up. The election is set for April 16th.

We've been working on our Stop Kenney campaign for a long time now and I want to tell you about something I use to keep going. I picture Kenney's concession speech.

I picture him standing at the podium and the look on his face as he stands in front of a room full of supporters and he realizes that Alberta is not his personal fiefdom. That Alberta has changed.

It's an incredibly satisfying visualization and it's one that's getting closer and closer to reality. Jason Kenney and the UCP have been rocked by scandal after scandal. We've seen the news of $60,000 of illegal corporate money ending up in the bank account of Jeff Callaway's kamikaze campaign, of the RCMP investigation into the UCP or the reports that their star downtown Calgary candidate, Caylan Ford, espouses racist and white supremacist talking points.

But we can't just rely on the UCP to implode. We have to do the work. We're going into our fourth week of digital door knocking and text banking and it has been incredible. We can talk to a lot of voters in very little time and we've identified thousands of supporters that we will be getting out to the polls.

And that's why I'm emailing you. We need your help.

We're holding texting parties every week in the lead up to the election, where we text thousands of voters across the province to make sure they don't vote for Kenney's UCP. Will you sign up to join a text bank this week? Click here to sign up now.

I'm in!

We'll provide the training and food for the evening. If you don't have a laptop or tablet we do have a handful of spares so just let us know.

Studies show that the most effective way to make sure that someone votes is through a one-on-one conversation. And the easy to use texting technology we're using means we can have as many of these critical get-out-the-vote conversations as possible.

This is a critical election for Alberta. And if we're going to have impact, and stop Kenney from getting elected, then we need more volunteers. Will you sign up now to attend a volunteer session this week? Click here for more info.

I'm in!

From the whole team at Progress Alberta I want to thank you for your help. We're a new organizing cutting a different path and we can't do it without your support. So thank you for reading this and let's Stop Kenney.

From the whole Progress Alberta team: Duncan Kinney, Effy Adar, Jim Storrie, Adora Nwofor, and Peter Driftmier
